When You Walk Along Nakamachi Street in a Kimono!

This unique shopping street consists of specialty shops offering folk art, crafts, food, drink, and more. The street of shops set in storehouses allows you to envision what the Edo period was like. In the present day, shops that sell food you can eat on-the-go, sweets, and other items add color to the city's scenery and fun to visitors' sightseeing.

We made a flyer that can be used here in Nakamachi. Take this premium flyer with you when you make your way around the area! Experience Japanese culture while interacting with the shopkeepers and locals.
